Teacher of Geography

Required September 2023

An earlier start may be possible.

- Are you looking for a new challenge?

Do you:

- Love teaching and instilling students with a passion for learning?
- Want to be part of a department with excellent facilities?
- Enjoy working within a strong and supportive team?

At The Canterbury Academy, we seek to appoint a Teacher of Geography to join our Humanities department and be part of a fantastic team. You will have the opportunity to teach our amazing students across all key stages including sixth-form students.

Staff are supported by the friendly and passionate Humanities department. You will be supported with excellent CPD and training to develop your subject knowledge and benefit from the on-site gym, coffee shop and 2week October half term.

If you would like to be part of our successful department then we would love to hear from you.

Please note that applications will be assessed upon receipt and interviews may take place before the closing date so please apply as soon as possible.

Closing Date: Apply online today – alternatively an application form is available from our website: www.canterburyacademy.co.uk
